

Clinical Skills Programme at a glance...

10 different courses developed with the University of Cumbria & Specialists teams

147 workshops delivered
1829 attendees

Over 900 Different Registered Nurses trained to date

This equates to Approx. 1 in 5 nurses

95% of Nursing Homes engaged in workshops

Due to success of phase 1 further funding secured for phase 2

130 + Organisations learning together

Nurses from over 250 different roles

2676 places booked

Workshops delivered against original target
Communications	150%
Diabetes	100%
Male Supra/Pubic Catheterisation	121%
Pain Management	100%
Tissue Viability	133%
Verification of Expected Death	150%

Shortlisted for HSHJ Training & Development Award

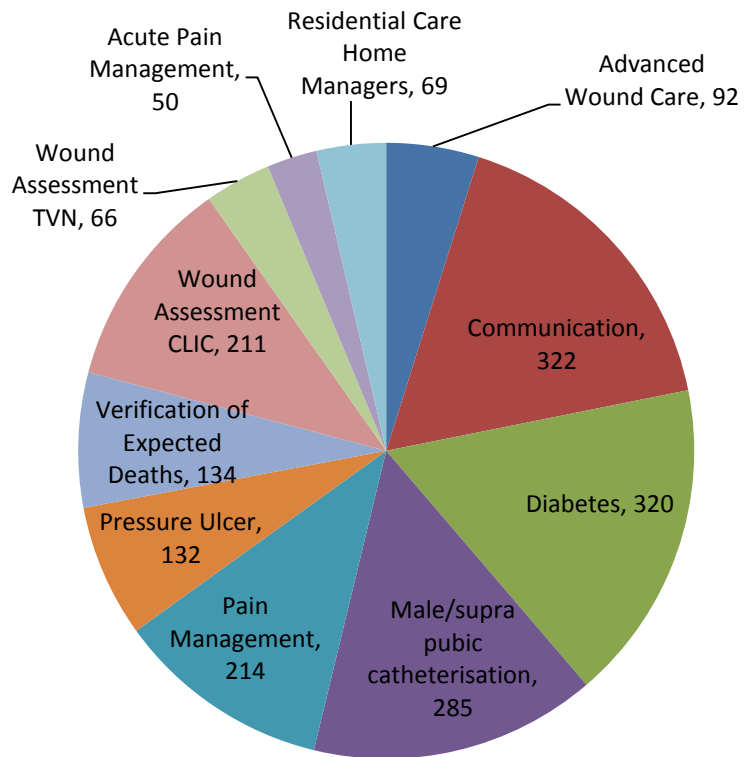

50% of nurses received follow up so far...

94% of GP Practices engaged in workshops

Competency frameworks developed to accompany each clinical skill to embed learning and support NMC revalidation

Numbers attending workshops

Training places available through workshops delivered by the CLIC Clinical Skills programme	Places booked	Numbers attending
3108	2660 (86% of capacity)	1854 (59% of capacity) with 1 workshop to deliver

Number of workshops cancelled due to low bookings	2 workshops cancelled due to floods – both rescheduled
Wound Assessment & Product Selection	20/10/2015	Jubilee House, Penrith
Male/supra pubic catheterisation	30/10/2015	Furness General, Barrow
Advanced Wound Care	20/01/2016	Whitehaven Golf Club
Verification of Expected Deaths	22/02/2016	Newton Rigg, Penrith
Verification of Expected Deaths	26/02/2016	St Mary's, Ulverston